RAMSEY AUTHOR HOSTING BOOK LAUNCH EVENT FOR MEMOIR ABOUT FINDING HIS FATHER FOR FIRST TIME

A 'The Pursuit of Happyness' Meets 'Forrest Gump' Type Story

February 3, 2020, Ramsey, Minnesota.

On February 24, 2020, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., author and attorney, Joe Field, will host a book launch celebration of his recently released memoir, "Finding Joe Adams", at the Heart of the City Factory in Anoka, Minnesota. While his story is filled with twists and turns such as being kidnapped, forced in a migrant worker caravan, evicted time after time--all before the age of 12, it is capped by Joe finding his long lost father for the first time at age 60, an event captured by national television. A heartfelt, humorous story of faith, hope and persevering.

Joe Field is President and owner of FIELD LAW, P.A., and has served as Chairman of the Ramsey Charter Commission, the PACT Charter School Board, the Salvation Army Advisory Council and as Vice-President of the Minnesota Christian Writers Guild.
